CallWorld Telemarketing GmbH

DIMA Systems AG

"Thanks to our ELSBETH [...] we are now able to realize our customer projects more efficiently and inexpensively."

Giuseppe Genetelli

CEO

CallWorld Telemarketing GmbH

“The possibility of transmitting a call number depending on the campaign is not the only advantage of the ELSBETH Predictive dialer. Especially its answering machine recognition has helped our contact centers to have considerably more net contacts within a short time of the installation. Moreover, the remote support works just as smoothly as the support on site.”

Stefan Lanz

Head of Coordination

Customer Contact Center Tamedia AG

“Market research institutes require modern telecommunications solutions provide by a flexible, reliable and competent partner – that is why we have chosen itCampus.”

Markus Adomeit

FGM Forschungsgruppe Medien GmbH

“Our major issues were, that we did not want to experiment in the outbound field and that we wanted to implement a future-proof solution. itCampus is the partner we found and whose technology and competence in the field convinced us from the start.”
